

Your child can be VERY SMART (if you start now - it's up to you!)

Dear Caring Parent,

You would die for your baby...Without a second thought. In the blink of an eye.

And you would give anything, ANYTHING, to keep your child healthy, happy...To give your child every advantage you possibly can. For the rest of your child's life.

You would.
And you can.

You can give your child the most important advantage, the advantage that will make all other advantages come by themselves.

You can make your child smart.

Your Smart Child

Yes, that is your baby. Being better than normal...being amazing...

You see those sparks of recognition in his eyes...he recognizes you, he recognizes things, shapes, people...Isn't it supposed to take a lot longer for him to be able to do that? He does things...faster, quicker, smarter...

And as she grows up – how come she's not having problems grasping things in school. You see her cruising along...she gets it!

She's reading, by herself, without you having to push. Book after book, fun books, serious books, classic literature...she brings a BIG TOTE BAG to the library...

He's into music. Popular stuff, yeah, but more...classical music, jazz, rock...he knows how to swing, he knows how to rock and roll and he also understands what's good about Mozart...he just gets it!

And she gets into good schools. With great grades. With community service. With confidence. With the right friends. With the right decisions.

Into college. Into grad school...into a career that he loves, that earns him really good money, that gives his wife and his kids the good, fulfilling, comfortable life they deserve.

And she comes to visit you in your twilight years, and kisses you on the forehead and whispers in your ear...Thank you...

Your smart child...

Thanks to you...

You can give this to your child. You gave him life. Now you can give him quality of life. The life he deserves. A life where he can grow, gain, be mature, be happy...A smart life.

It is up to you.

And the sooner you start, the better...

But How?

There are books out there and videos out there and cousins and uncles and aunts out there, and they all have their well meaning advice. Advice that confuses. Advice that conflicts. One says discipline. One says softness. One says toughness. One says one thing and the other says another and one book says one way and another book says another

STOP!

They mean well.
But they don't really know.

There is a source that tells you ALL you need to know about how to make your child smarter.

There is a source that tells this to you, in plain, straightforward English, without numbing you with pages and pages of theory and without speculation.

There is a source that gives you solid practical advice.

There is a source that tells you how to deal with all kinds of situations that may arise.

There is a source that tells you...

The SECRETS of having a smart baby

How to Have a Smart Baby is a goldmine of information that you can use to make your child smarter, and ultimately much, much happier.

It's an easy to read source of incredible information.

Information like:

Just like Carmen Luethy, of Arizona:

How to Have a Smart Baby was a great alternative for moms like me who want their child to learn more, do more, and experience more in life. My little guy amazes me at every turn – he learns things on his own without me ever formally teaching them to him! Your methods are incredible. I didn't have to pay for a pricey education to get him off to a great start – I did it myself – and we're all enjoying the time spent together!

Carmen Luethy – Arizona

And just like Barbara Johnson of Louisiana:

How to Have a Smart Baby put me instantly at ease and taught me how to give her the gift of intelligence without forcing the situation. She's already well ahead of her peers in all of the milestones! Thank you!

Barbara Johnson – New Orleans, LA

And just like you with your baby. Seeing results.
